ABOUT AIBL

American Indian Business Leaders (AIBL) is the only national 501(c)(3) non-profit organization with the mission to increase the representation of American Indians in business and entrepreneurial ventures through education and leadership development opportunities. AIBL was founded on four guiding principles: Education, Experience, Leadership and Culture.

AIBL helps school-based AIBL Chapter members link their school coursework with business and entrepreneurship education in a way that expands their curriculum beyond traditional academic methods. To date, over 500 students and professionals identify themselves as AIBL Chapter members or AIBL Alumni.

The AIBL Annual National Conference takes place at new locations around the country each year. At the conference, hundreds of students gather together to share thoughts, ideas, and new and emerging research trends in the business industry both on and off the reservation communities.
