

National AIBL Conference

Chapter of the Year Competition

Eligibility Requirements

Your Chapter must have a current Application for the Establishment of an AIBL Chapter form or a Renewal of AIBL Chapter Status form on file at the National AIBL Office.

Competition Divisions

The competition will be separated into three divisions: High School, Tribal College, and University.

Awards

$1,000 cash prizes awarded for each category.

Submission Instructions

The Registration Form is due March 3rd, 2023. The application is on our conference page website.

Presentation Requirements

Each Chapter will be given a total of eight minutes to provide a LIVE presentation on their Chapter. The presentation must be done in the format of a PowerPoint, Prezi, or Keynote. You may include a video in your presentation, but it is not required. Due to your limited time allotment, we advise keeping your introductions short. Also, due to limited time, your Chapter will not be allowed to use your own equipment. All presentations must be uploaded through this link:

COY Submission

Please make 3 printed copies of your presentation slides to hand out to judges prior to presenting. Presentations must have an opening slide in the following format:

- Chapter of the Year Competition
- Chapter Name
- Chapter Advisor
- Chapter Officers
- Year

Evaluation Criteria

A panel of entrepreneurs, financial professionals, educators, and tribal leaders will judge each presentation. Judges will be allowed 10 minutes for questions. A group of at least two student Chapter Members must be present for the Q&A session. Virtual presentation is not supported at this time. Winners will be announced at the conference awards banquet. Chapters will be judged on the following criteria. (Rating system: 5 = excellent, 4 = very good, 3 = good, 2 = fair, 1 = poor).

- Introduction of Chapter
- Past and present activities
- Leadership of activities
- Integration of American Indigenous Culture
- Community service projects
- Fundraising efforts
- Presentation skills

Contact Information

If you have any questions, please direct all inquiries to info@aibl.org.