

INDIGENOUS STUDENTS

JOIN THE AIBL COMMUNITY

Chapters are student groups at high schools, tribal colleges (TCUs), and universities. Chapters provide leadership development, career and college guidance, and networking through educational activities, community service projects, and social activities. Chapters are a support system to help students facilitate the transition of being away from home while attending school. Students gain access to opportunities in:

Networking

Chapter Activities

Mentorship

National Conferences

Peer Support

Internships
